

Article of the Week

To support your child with learning about their rights and the UNCRC, we will be sharing resources from Unicef each week. Every week we will focus on a new article and suggest some activities that will develop your child's understanding of that article. As part of your child's home learning, you may wish to complete 1 or all of the activities, it is up to you and your child.